Dear Mr. Reese,
A few days ago, I 1.submitted my application and recipe for the 2nd Annual DC Metro Cooking Contest. However, I would like to 2.change my recipe if it is possible. I have checked the website again, but I could only 3.find information about the contest date, time, and prizes. I couldn't see any information about 4.changing recipes. I have just created a great new recipe, and I 5.doubt people will love this more than the one I have already submitted. Please let me know if I can change my 6.submitted recipe. I look forward to your response.

Best Regards,
Sophia Walker

Dear Sir or Madam: 고치기

I am writing in response to your advertisement in the Columbia Journal Classifieds for a copywriter. I am a copywriter with 8 years' experience of conceptualizing and producing 1.engaging copy for catalogs, annual reports, brochures and all types of collateral material. In addition, my writing abilities have helped me create 2.original works of art for clients like Mead Coated Papers and Oxford Healthcare. I am 3.poor about MS Word and WordPerfect, as well as both Macintosh and PC platforms. Much of my work has been crafted for the following clients: Macmillan Reference Library, Watson Guptill Publications, Hawaii University Press, and Arcade Fashion & Lifestyle Magazine. I have confidence in my ability to produce powerful, 4.gripping copy for your organization. My experience 5.prohibits me to complete any project from concept to the final stages at a fast pace to meet deadlines, and to 6.package it for the Web. I look forward to hearing from you. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Your 1.general donations have made such a difference in the lives of little children who have been 2.stricken with cancer. They might not know your names, but we know that many of our 3.patients can run around in the sunshine now, happy and carefree, because of you. Now, as cancer research has 4.processed, we have the opportunity to introduce an exciting and newly proven 5.treatment that promises to 6.save even more young lives. To get this treatment up and running this year, we are hoping that you would consider 7.supporting us with $10,000. To meet this need, we ask that you make an 8.initial donation of half that amount followed by a 9.final donation by the end of November. We know that you will find your greatest reward in the knowledge that you have 10.poor countless young lives. We thank you once again for all you have done in the past, and appreciate your 11.consideration of this new request.

Do you want to save on electricity costs through solar power but can't or don't want to put panels on your roof? Residents in the Town of Whately now have the 1.inclusive opportunity to sign up for a regional community shared solar farm being built in the town by Nexamp, the veteran-founded and Massachusetts-based solar provider. Through Nexamp's Solarize My Bill community solar program, Whately households and businesses can take 2.advantage of the environmental and 3.economic benefits of going solar without installing solar panels on their property. By subscribing to a share of the clean electricity generated by a local community solar project, participants can directly 4.pay their electric bill and save on electricity costs with no upfront investment or long-term commitment. To learn more about how you can save while 5.supporting local sources of renewable energy, visit www.SolarizingtheBill.com or call 600-445-2124 to speak with a member of the Nexamp community solar team.

I want to thank you for bringing members of “Puerto Ricans for a Positive Image” to the American Broadcasting System (ABS) this week to meet with me and other ABS senior 1.executives. The heartfelt 2.passion for portraying more 3.positive images of the Puerto Rican community was certainly heard by our executives. As we discussed in our meeting, it was never our 4.intent to 5.represent images to your community, and the show in question no longer airs on ABS. ABS is known for the 6.diversity of its characters, and over the years we have been continually recognized by multiple groups for stories that 7.challenge stereotypes and bring different perspectives and voices to the screen. We apologize for any 8.inadvertent 9.defense taken and can assure you that we will continue to strive to 10.reflect the vast diversity of our audience with respect and, where 11.inappropriate, with self-deprecating humor. Thank you again for meeting with us and for voicing your concerns.
