DO YOU HAVE A ROLE MODEL?

Announcer: Good evening, everyone. This week a new semester has started in most schools. Many students have probably ¹ [set / has set] goals and plans for the new semester already. According to a study, it may be easier ² [for you / with you] to stick to them if you have a role model. Our reporter ³ [was going / went] to a high school and asked students about their role models. Let's listen to ⁴ [what / why] some of the students said.

Jihu: Do I have a role model? Yes, I do. I think role models influence our lives in a positive way ⁵ [by giving / give] us dreams, hopes, and lessons. My role model is Roald Dahl. He helped me ⁶ [dream of / dream] becoming a children's book author. I have read a lot of his books and ⁷ [loved / loving] all of them. Reading his books such as Charlie and the Chocolate Factory and Matilda, I ⁸ [are found / found] myself fascinated by his interesting stories and creative characters. I especially like the messages and lessons in his books. Many of his characters are in unfortunate situations. However, they do their best ⁹ [to break / breaking] free from their bad situations, and their dreams finally come true. I learned ¹⁰ [in which / that] we should always believe in our abilities and dreams. As a result, I became ¹¹ [confident / more confident] and hopeful about my future. Like Roald Dahl, I want to be a writer ¹² [who / which] can have a positive influence on readers, too.

Hyeri: My role model is Kim Mandeok, a female merchant ¹³ [while / during] the Joseon Dynasty. The reason she's my role model is not because she earned ¹⁴ [a lot / a lot of] money. I want to follow her ¹⁵ [challenging / challenge] spirit and sharing mind. During her era, ¹⁶ [in there / there] were many restrictions on women's activities. ¹⁷ [In addition / In addition to], she lost her parents early in life. However, she ¹⁸ [overcame / overcoming] all of her difficulties and created her own destiny as a merchant all by herself. That's not all. After making a large fortune, she willingly donated almost all of her wealth to her ¹⁹ [starve / starving] neighbors. I think she was a true example of noblesse ²⁰ [oblige / obliged]. I really ²¹ [respect / respected] her way of life. ²² [Whether / Whatever] job I have in the future, I'll try to overcome the obstacles around me rather than complain about them. Above all, I want to be a person like Kim Mandeok who ²³ [shared it / shared] what she had with others.

Minjun: I have role ²⁴ [models / modeling], too. They are the main characters in the film Cool Runnings. The movie is about Jamaican bobsledders who hoped ²⁵ [to winning / to win] an Olympic medal. However, Jamaica is an island country ²⁶ [which / where] it never snows. They were laughed at by others, but that didn't stop them from ²⁷ [trying / tried]. ²⁸ [Every / Every of] scene where they practiced riding their bobsled was really funny and touching. That may be because their situation ²⁹ [are seemed / seemed] very similar to mine. Actually, I'm a cross-country ski athlete. Sometimes I ³⁰ [feel / feel like] frustrated when my colleagues and I don't get attention or support from people. However, ³¹ [when / than] this happens, I motivate myself by thinking about the characters in Cool Runnings. They make me set a ³² [more clearly / clearer] goal and keep challenging myself. Their story ³³ [end / ended] in the film, but my story won't be over until I get an Olympic medal.

Saemi: Actually, I've never ³⁴ [think / thought] about my role model. However, if a role model means someone ³⁵ [who are / who is] worthy of my respect, then I have that kind of person. Her name is Lee Yura and she is ³⁶ [one / that] year older than me. I met her ³⁷ [when she / when] was a sophomore mentor at a study mentoring club. ³⁸ [Although / When] I was a freshman, I didn't have any idea about how to study. However, she always answered my silly questions kindly, waiting for me ³⁹ [understanding / to understand] her explanations completely. In addition, ⁴⁰ [whether / once] she taught me something, she made me explain it back to her in my own words. That method really helped me understand difficult concepts ⁴¹ [better / best]. I became interested in and more confident about ⁴² [studying / being studied]. I don't think a role model ⁴³ [needs / needing] to be someone famous or special. Role models are not ⁴⁴ [what / that] far away. Your parents, sisters, brothers, or friends can all be role models!

Did you enjoy ⁴⁵ [listening to / listening] the students' stories about their role models? If you don't have a role model yet, why not set a positive example and try to be the ⁴⁶ [most / best] person you can be? I'll be back tomorrow evening with a new ⁴⁷ [reported / report].

DO YOU HAVE A ROLE MODEL?

Announcer: Good evening, everyone. This week a new semester has started in most schools. Many students have ¹ [glibly / probably] set goals and plans for the new semester already. According to a study, it may be easier for you to ² [order / stick] to them if you have a role model. Our reporter went to a high school and asked students about their role models. Let's listen to what some of the students said.

Jihu: Do I have a role model? Yes, I do. I think role models ³ [influence / feature] our lives in a positive way by giving us dreams, hopes, and lessons. My role model is Roald Dahl. He helped me dream of becoming a children's book author. I have read a lot of his books and loved all of them. Reading his books such as Charlie and the Chocolate Factory and Matilda, I found myself fascinated by his interesting stories and ⁴ [contagious / creative] characters. I especially like the messages and lessons in his books. Many of his characters are in ⁵ [unfortunate / favourable] situations. ⁶ [Additionally / However], they do their best to break free from their bad situations, and their dreams finally come true. I learned that we should always believe in our abilities and dreams. As a result, I became more ⁷ [confident / compact] and hopeful about my future. Like Roald Dahl, I want to be a writer who can have a(n) ⁸ [altruistic / positive] influence on readers, too.

Hyeri: My role model is Kim Mandeok, a female merchant during the Joseon Dynasty. The reason she's my role model is not because she ⁹ [earned / enthused] a lot of money. I want to ¹⁰ [follow / scorn] her challenging spirit and sharing mind. During her era, there were many ¹¹ [alternatives / restrictions] on women's activities. ¹² [In addition / However], she lost her parents early in life. However, she overcame all of her difficulties and ¹³ [created / abolished] her own destiny as a merchant all by herself. That's not all. After making a large fortune, she willingly donated almost all of her wealth to her ¹⁴ [starving / startling] neighbors. I think she was a true example of noblesse oblige. I really ¹⁵ [respect / disgust] her way of life. Whatever job I have in the future, I'll try to overcome the obstacles around me rather than ¹⁶ [complain / commend] about them. Above all, I want to be a person like Kim Mandeok who ¹⁷ [shared / sheltered] what she had with others.

Minjun: I have role models, too. They are the main characters in the film Cool Runnings. The movie is about Jamaican bobsledders who hoped to win an Olympic medal. ¹⁸ [However / Likewise], Jamaica is an island country where it never snows. They were laughed at by others, but that didn't stop them from trying. Every scene where they ¹⁹ [precluded / practiced] riding their bobsled was really funny and touching. That may be because their situation seemed very ²⁰ [various / similar] to mine. Actually, I'm a cross-country ski athlete. Sometimes I feel frustrated when my ²¹ [colleagues / colonies] and I don't get attention or support from people. However, when this happens, I ²² [motivate / prohibit] myself by thinking about the characters in Cool Runnings. They make me set a clearer goal and keep ²³ [comforting / challenging] myself. Their story ended in the film, but my story won't be over until I get an Olympic medal.

Saemi: Actually, I've never thought about my role model. ²⁴ [However / Furthermore], if a role model means someone who is worthy of my respect, then I have that kind of person. Her name is Lee Yura and she is one year older than me. I met her when she was a sophomore mentor at a study mentoring club. When I was a freshman, I didn't have any idea about how to study. However, she always answered my silly questions kindly, waiting for me to ²⁵ [understand / undertake] her explanations completely. In addition, once she taught me something, she made me ²⁶ [explain / enact] it back to her in my own words. That method really helped me understand ²⁷ [difficult / available] concepts better. I became ²⁸ [put in / interested in] and more confident about studying. I don't think a role model needs to be someone famous or special. Role models are not that far away. Your parents, sisters, brothers, or friends can all be role models!

Did you ²⁹ [enjoy / suffer] listening to the students' stories about their role models? If you don't have a role model yet, why not set a(n) ³⁰ [defensive / positive] example and try to be the best person you can be? I'll be back tomorrow evening with a new report.
